ANNOUNCES FOR RE-ELECTION

L. E. Guess Wants to be County Clerk of Crittenden Again, Popular Man.

To the voters of Crittenden County.

In my race for County Court Clerk, I had hoped to be able to leave the office and see in person all of the voters of the county in order to present my claims, but I find that if I perform the duties of the office and render the service that the people elected me to do, and also do the additional work which these war conditions have imposed upon the office, it will be impossible for me to be out of the office for any considerable length of time.

As you are aware, the nation is in the midst of a terrible war, and under recent Act of Congress the nation is enlisting and equipping a vast army of men for of the nation, I have been almost and it will probably take another month to finish. Beside this, I am required, during this month, as commissioner, to make settlements with the Sheriff and time I must see to the preparation of the ballots and the proper working of all of the election, and Mrs. Wint Brasher was very machinery for the coming pri- sick last week. mary. I mention these facts so that the voters may see that there never was a time when the duties of the clerk's effice were greater, and that I cannot very well make a house to house canvass of the county, and at the same time, serve the people as M. ### O'CONNOR, RED CROSS CHASER OF CYCLONES

The world is full of rainbow chasers, but the one and only official cyclone chaser is John J. O'Connor, director of the central division of the American ited Cross, with headquarters at Chicago. The Ited Cross Magazine has graphically told how he personally administered relief at Newcastle and New Albany, ind., when those cities were wrecked hy storms. But it is not generally known that, beginning with the disaster at Mattoon and Charleston, where 99 lives were lost, Mr. O'Connor directed relief work in 55 communities scuttered over seven states ! Not only did he get calls for help from several of the nine states then in his division, but Washlagton ordered him to take over the cyclone relief work in Kausas and Oklshoma, which orillnarily are administered from

MAKE YOUR CHOICE—IT'S RED CROSS OR IRON CROSS

One of the most striking phrases exressive of the duty of every American to unhold the ited Cross is that of I. Itoe I'mrchase, editor of a trade paper in Chicago. Here is what he tells his readers:

"You'd letter bear the ited Cross ourden now than bear the Iron Cross ourden all the rest of your life."

"We regard it us vital to keep on the farms the men mer there who know the business, especially the men trained in the use of all respond mafiltery. It would be varieful and foolish to let there go and afterward ry to replace them with unskilled men.

"We seek no mivantage for our inand we want the public to realize that without this product and without suflicient labor the farmers of the United States cannot Increase or even maintaln their production of foodstaffs next year. To avert the calamity that such n condition will surely produce, our industry and the forming industry which It chiefly supports must be put upon the same preferred basis as the making of war munitions, even if other less vital industries suffer thereby for mnterials mel men.

These are the measures that we declure to be vital to the feeding of this untion and its ailles next year;

"I. That the manufacture of farm ninterlals be given equal preference with the manufacture of war munitions as regards supplies of necessary raw muterlula.

"2. That service to the country in furm machinery factories be conshiered of equal importance with service in minition making plants, Government or private.

"Il. That labor on the farms be considered as of equal importance with the production of wer munitions,

"4. That the raw materials for farming muchinery and the Unished goods be given equal preference by the transportation agencies of the country with nunlitions of war.

"These mensures must be taken linmediately to be effective, because the use and demand for farming unrelinery are sensound. We must have right now materials and the men to make the form machinery that the farmer at home and abroad must use this Fall and next Spring. Delay in action of the as disastrous as failure to act at
